Bridal Shower

He Said She Said

Eight questions - who said it, him or her - most matches wins

This is the free sample. It is a complete, playable game - print as many copies as your party needs. The full version has more questions, a separate answer key for the host, and both US Letter and A4 layouts.

Before the shower

Ask the couple these eight questions separately (a text message works). Write their real answers on the key on page 3. If you cannot reach one of them, let the room vote and use the majority - the game still runs, it just becomes a debate.

How to play

- Hand out one sheet per guest.
- Read each question once. Guests circle HIM or HER for who they think said it.
- Reveal the couple's real answers one at a time.
- Most matches wins. Ties go to whoever got question 1 right.
