Bridal Shower

Would She Rather

Eight impossible choices - guess the bride - most matches wins

This is the free sample. It is a complete, playable game - print as many copies as your party needs. The full version has more questions, a separate answer key for the host, and both US Letter and A4 layouts.

How to play

- Send the bride these eight questions the night before (or ask her quietly at the start).

- Hand out one sheet per guest and read each question once.

- Guests circle the option they think the bride chose.

- Reveal her answers. Most matches wins.

Why it works for quiet groups: there is no wrong answer, so nobody feels put on the spot. The guests who hate performing still score points here.
